

2018 saw demise of several stores, while one boutique flourished

The Herald Bulletin – Christopher Stephens

March 24, 2019

Madison County lost some of its most historic places to shop in 2018 including central Indiana's first indoor mall. After a monthlong prolonged death, the Mounds Mall finally closed its doors April 1 to generations of shoppers who called it home. While the closing came as no surprise to Andersonians who watched the mall shrink as major retailers and anchor outlets closed up shop, the notice came in the form of a letter to each of mall's remaining tenants.

To read the full article, please click the link below:

2018 saw demise of several stores, while one boutique flourished