

Apartment Rentals Are Evolving To High Levels

Realty Biz News – Brian Kline

May 28, 2018

A recent analysis report issued by Morningstar Credit Ratings sheds insights about developments and trends in the multi-family (mostly apartments) segment of residential housing. The highlighted information focuses on:

- Growth shifting to secondary markets and the suburbs.
- The effect of the Tax Cuts and Jobs Act of 2017 becoming clearer.
- Rising oil prices impacting specific markets.

To read the full article, please click the link below:

Apartment Rentals Are Evolving To High Levels