

Morningstar National Rental Market April Monthly Summary

Realty Biz News – Brian Kline

May 8, 2018

Morningstar Credit Ratings publishes a monthly summary report on a significant portion of the national single-family rental market. The data is not representative of the entire market. It only covers certain institutional loans securitized by residential rental properties. What is significant is the data is detailed and updated monthly. The March Single-Family Performance Summary includes approximately 86,200 properties.

To read the full article, please click the link below:

Morningstar National Rental Market April Monthly Summary