

Industrial properties highlight $792M Goldman CMBS transaction

National Mortgage News— Glen Fest

June 20, 2019

A portfolio of multistate distribution centers represents the largest chunk of collateral in a newly launched Goldman Sachs conduit commercial-mortgage securitization of more than $914 million in recently issued loans. The $78 million portfolio loan for the industrial properties covers three single-tenant sites — including an Amazon fulfillment center in Charleston, Tenn. — and covers a portion of the $202.9 million purchase of the properties by a South Korean investment firm.

To read the full article, please click the link below:

Industrial properties highlight \$792M Goldman CMBS transaction